Dear Rotary Club:

On behalf of the staff at Hawthorne, I would like to express our appreciation to you for the fruit we received during Education Week. Your organization demonstrates a very caring attitude toward the staff here at Hawthorne and the surrounding community.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Michael D. Powell, Ph.D.

Dear Mr. Rice,
The staff really enjoyed the apples you brought. They were beautiful, delicious & delicious as well as being a healthful food.

On behalf of all the staff, thank you and your fellow Rotarians. It's wonderful to feel appreciated.

Hi y'all! I am Jacobien Bückmann, and I am from The Netherlands. I am 19 years young, so in two years I might really enjoy this country, but then again, having a fake ID is fun, too.

I am at West Georgia College, and I pretend my major is art. When I go home I will study law. They call me "the Dutch redneck-bitch", but if they are in a good mood, they call me "the Dutch redneck-babe". This is because of my perfect (?) Southern accent. I like drivin' pick-up trucks, and go out huntin' and fishin' with my redneck, my six-pack of Bud, and a can of dip. I smoke cowboy-killers (Marlboro Regular). I hate grits, so actually I am not a real redneck. But I like Jimmy Buffet and Hank Williams, Jr. My other nick name is "Jacobeer". Guess why. Gustaf and Frazer made this yell: "She's tough, she's mean, she's Jacobien". Nice way to be introduced!
